Allowable Subject Matter

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Claims 80-90 and 92-96 are allowable over the prior art of record because none of the prior art whether taken singularly or in combination to teach the claimed combination as recited, especially when these limitations are considered within the specific combination such require providing a first view of the cursor and at least one of the virtual objects in a first two-dimensional display space and a second view of the cursor and at least one of the virtual objects in a second two-dimensional display space, wherein the first and second display spaces correspond to different planes of the three-dimensional modeling environment. It is the limitations in the claimed combination that have not been found, taught, or suggested by the prior art of record that make these claims allowable.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Conclusion

4. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
